PRESENT LEVELS OF ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE

Sam reads at a second-grade level and is strongest in math facts. He communicates mostly with an AAC device (a tablet with a speech app) and some single words. He has left the classroom without permission four times this year, usually during loud transitions.

STRENGTHS

Sam is a visual learner. He loves trains and puzzles and will work hard for time with them. He follows a picture schedule independently.

HEALTH

Sam has a severe peanut allergy. An EpiPen is kept in the nurse's office and in his backpack. If he shows signs of a reaction, give the EpiPen and call 911.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodation	When	Where
Extended time (1.5x) on classwork and tests	All assignments	All classes
4 breaks of 5 minutes per day in the calm corner	Daily	Classroom
Visual schedule on his desk	Daily	All classes
AAC device available at all times	Daily	All settings
Warning before loud transitions (fire drills, assemblies)	As needed	All settings

ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY

Sam uses an AAC device (tablet with a speech app). Staff should model words on the device during lessons.

BEHAVIOR INTERVENTION PLAN

Target behavior: Elopement (leaving the classroom or building without permission).

Triggers: Loud noises, crowded hallways, unexpected changes to the schedule.

Prevention: Seat Sam near the door away from the hallway; preview schedule changes with the picture schedule.

Response: If Sam leaves the room, one adult follows at a distance, keeps him in sight and radios the office. Do not chase him.

ANNUAL GOALS

Goal 1 (Communication): By September 2027, Sam will use his AAC device to request a break or help in 4 of 5 opportunities, as measured by staff data.
